Production Assistant for Documentaries

About the company and no. of intern(s)

Freestate Productions (since 2000) is a Singapore based production company. Freestate conceptualises and produces audio-visual content for broadcast, museums, art galleries, festivals and marketing projects. Creating original content with strong visuals and merging commercial projects with arts and heritage are our dedications as well as niche both for local as well as international clients. Our clients include a diverse mix, such as Channel NewsAsia, National Gallery Singapore, National Heritage Board, MTV and Marshal Cavendish Education.

Creative achievements in our documentary projects have attracted worldwide interest and acclaim. Over the years we have produced documentaries that touch tangible and impactful issues and subjects such as dealing with the food scarcity and shortage during WW2 and the value of play and playgrounds and their impact on urban communities for all.
