

Returning for the fifth year, the national giving movement Giving Week provides more opportunities to embrace giving as a way of life throughout the December festive season.

Taking place from 1 to 7 December this year, Giving Week is helmed by the National Volunteer & Philanthropy Centre (NVPC) to celebrate the spirit of giving, by rallying individuals, businesses, and non-profits to share their time, talent, treasure, and voice.

Singapore is the only country worldwide to extend the international day of giving, Giving Tuesday (3 December), into a week-long national movement that concludes two days after International Volunteer Day (5 December).

It doesn't matter how big or small our act of giving is because, when multiplied by millions, it will make a world of difference and transform our community into a #CityofGood, a Singapore that Cares.

Be informed. Be inspired. Be the change.
